But what shall we leave behind?

Now we are here
In a busy world—
One full of so many things
Which will help to shape our future.
It's a world full of the happiness
of youth,
And it is here that we find
Our first great challenge.

Each day brings forth new opportunities–
An opportunity to gain the knowledge

That we need so desperately–
An opportunity to prove ourselves;
To know others; and, most of all,
To know ourselves.

We hope to gain a respect for learning–
A genuine realization of the worth of knowledge.
This does not come easily;
Yet, once mastered it is the key
To whole new worlds–
To those worlds which we were scarcely aware of before.
A world of discovery and a world of
knowledge,
A world of great minds
and deeds–
They are all before us;
Yet, each of us alone
May grasp them for himself.

Yes, today we are here.
But all too soon we must leave
To be thrust into a strange
new world—
The future.
What shall we have contributed here?
What shall we leave behind?

In Appreciation For All She Has Done

Having worked so closely with her this year, the members of the Wildcat Staff are aware of how much Mrs. Kay Slaughter contributes to Webb High School. Besides teaching bookkeeping, office practice, and typing, she is also in her fifth year as advisor for the Wildcat Staff.

We on the staff are truly grateful to Mrs. Slaughter for her help, guidance, and advice. Even though her job has been a trying one at times, she has always been willing to work with and to help us in any way possible. Few students realize how many hours of work go into our annual each year. Because we are well aware of the amount of hard work involved, we on the staff feel that the entire student body owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Slaughter.

In appreciation for all she has done, the members of the 1966 Wildcat, are pleased to dedicate our annual this year to

MRS. KAY SLAUGHTER

ADMINISTRATION

Long after we are gone,
we will still be thanking

members of our faculty
for the guidance, understanding,
and knowledge they have given us.

Mr. E.H. Stallings, Webb High's new principal, came to us from Louisburg, N.C., where he was principal of Louisburg High School. In earlier years he received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from East Carolina College and attended summer school at the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Stallings faced a tremendous task in September; yet, he has handled all administrative problems at Webb with wisdom and efficiency. His main ambition for the school has been the development and improvement of its academic standards. Many needed changes have been made in order for us to meet the high scholastic requirements of today's society. We, the students of J.F. Webb High School, wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Stallings for the valued assistance and guidance he has offered us this year.

Editor's Note

Here it is, students, your 1965 WILDCAT. It was months in the making, but today it meets the final test as it passes from our hands into yours. We on the staff have found the job of editing it both challenging and rewarding. We only hope that you will find here a treasury of memories rather than just a book of photographs.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the staff and to Mrs. Slaughter for their many long hours of work. I would also like to thank all students for their co-operation and interest. I am glad we could all work together to produce a memorable WILDCAT '65.

Spectator Records Activities At Webb

MRS. MARY T. STOVALL, Advisor

For those of us who wish to cherish memories of the past, what better way is there to retain any memory than by saving old school newspapers?

This is the second year that Webb has published our school newspaper, "The Spectator." Composing this staff other than its sponsor are the editor, associate editor, sports manager, and business manager. These officers are elected each spring by secret vote of the student body. Other members have the privilege of joining the club if they are interested in newspaper work. Meeting once each week after school, the staff members work hard to bring the news of activity at Webb to students, faculty, and patrons. Many lengthy hours are spent by the advisor, officers, and regular members in gathering and typing up news such as the Homecoming festivities, various club activities, and sports events. The editorial page of the newspaper provides a place for students to express their opinions on various subjects.

The main desire of the entire staff is to publish a paper that is both interesting and entertaining. As a result, our "Spectator" is a newspaper of which any school would be proud.

Nine Girls Foster Webb School Spirit

The cheerleaders are a vital part of Webb High School spirit. Led by chief, Linda Ann Currin and advisor, Mrs. Lacala Oakes, these nine girls have tried to set an excellent example for the entire student body. They have stood behind the Wildcats win or lose and have served to remind us all what school spirit and enthusiasm can do.

Cheerleaders are elected each spring by vote of the student body. They start practicing in August, and their activities do not end until the following spring. They hold pep rallies, make posters, and lead cheers at all football and basketball games. The office of cheerleader is considered an honor, but it also means a great deal of responsibility and hard work. We should all be grateful to these girls for the time, energy, and effort they have devoted to Webb High School.

common fields of interest.

Forensic Society Headed By Cash And Lyon

The J.F. Webb Forensic Society is an organization for the purpose of promoting and developing students' skills and abilities in oral expression: argument, public speaking, and debating. This club was begun by Mr. John Webb in 1964 and became a member of the North Carolina High School Debating Union in that year. By sponsoring and participating in public speaking contests, the members of the club are able to examine the views of others and to accept defeat as well as victory. The meetings of the J.F. Webb Forensic Society vary from extemporaneous meetings to non-conference debates on a challenge basis. The members participate willingly and enthusiastically in these debates, not only to develop their skills, but also to gain greater knowledge of the many subjects of present world-wide concern.

Through research the through argument the students of the J.F. Webb Forensic Society can relate facts as well as give their own interpretation of them.

The Distributive Education Club (DECA) was organized for the first time this year here at J.F. Webb High School. There are twenty members of our local club, which is also affiliated with the state and national organizations.

DECA is the program of youth activity relating to Distributive Education and is designed to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution. DECA is the only national youth organization operating through the public schools to attract young people to these fields.

The main purposes of the DECA Club are (1) to develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to vocational competence, and (2) to promote understanding and appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship in our free, competetive enterprise system.

French I students get a first taste of French culture.

The French Club, Le Cerle Francais I, meets once each month in Room 20 during their class period. Programs for the club are presented in French by different members of the class. In this way French I students begin to learn more about French customs and culture. This is a valuable aid in learning the language. Mrs. Slaughter is the club's hard working advisor. Through her efforts, a charter for the club was presented to the student council this year.

The Future Homemakers of America is a youth organization which provides an opportunity for girls to develop into competent Homemakers. The worth-while club gives them the satisfaction of belonging to a nationwide organization that is doing a wonderful job in improving family living. The F.H.A. realize that the future homes of America are in the hands of the youth of today. By developing their own lives, the girls will be able to have homes where love, security, and faith form the foundation of the family unit.

The Webb Chapter attends certain events which further their interest in Home Economics. The club has sent delegates to the F.H.A. District IV Rally, the F.H.A. State Convention, and the F.H.A. National Meeting in St. Louis, Missouri.

Future Farmers Of America

One of the largest and most active organizations at J.F. Webb High School is the Future Farmers of America. Under the leadership of Jack Howard and Bill Ramsey, this year's club stressed agricultural leadership, the intelligent choice of farming occupations, and the development of character and citizenship among its members.

Further desire to fulfill their goals led to the participation of students in the State F.F.A. Leadership Training School, and the F.F.A. Camps.

To have fun and promote fellowship, the F.F.A. held its annual Father and Son Banquet and Christmas party. To raise money the members ran the concession stand at football games.

The Future Teachers of America is a warthwhile organization, the purpose af which is to acquaint the students with the functions of the teaching prafession. Many have shown a prafound interest in this club since its beginning. Learning of the various branches af teaching has been both informative and revealing to each member. By presenting programs, the prospective teachers are given an opportunity to explare and ta learn about the possibilities of the teaching profession. The members are able ta help each other ta understand and to recognize their individual potentials for becaming successful teachers.

The newest club at J.F. Webb High School is the Science Club. It was organized in the early foll under the direction of Mr. King, Mrs. Currin, and Mrs. Johnson. To insure that the club would be a permonent organization, a constitution was written and approved by the club. As stated in the constitution the purpose of the Science Club is to provide the opportunity for students to develop their attitudes, skills, and understonding of scientific knowledge.

The highlight of the yeor wos the Club's sponsoring of the School Science Fair. The winners of this fair attended the State Science Foir in Raleigh.

Latin I

SEATED: Suson Corbitt, President; Mrs. Glodys Sotterwhite, Advisor; Lindo Aitken, President; Tereso Currin, President. STANDING: Mory Mitchell, Secretary; Nancy Horris, Vice President; Gene Ayscue, Secretary; Betty Yancey, Vice President; Jackie Clork, Secretary; Al Bornes, Vice President.

The primum bonum of a beginning Lotin student is to make the Latin Club, for thereby hang many "extros." One of these is being a slave at the annual Romon banquet in the spring. Boys ond girls, weoring o short servont's tunic, corry out their masters' orders. These range from doing acrobatics to singing solos. For three days ofter they are sold, they work for their owners. Freshmen are chosen every year to present a dance feoture at the banquet. This year's dance theme wos a salute to the Nine Muses, who were depicted on a mural backdrop with their horse, Pegosus.

Sixty-seven Lotin I J.C.L.'ers have two new experiences beckoning them: attending the N.C. J.C.L. Convention in Chapel Hill in March, and attending the National Convention at Bowling Green, Kentucky. Those whose grades recommend them will receive a boost from the club treasury.

It is no wonder that Latin I students find their participation in Cognoscamus one of the highlights of the year.

Second-year J.C. L.'ers feel like professionals when it comes to Latin Club activities, for they are not walking untried paths. These "pros" decorate for the Latin banquet and have the privilege of lording over the lowly slaves. An Emperor and Empress are chosen from their group each year to reign over the banquet.

Many Latin II members will attend the state J.C.L. convention in Chapel Hill and the national convention in Kentucky this year. Last year a group of second-year students entertained at the state convention with a dance.

Even though there are only two years of Latin offered at Webb, many Juniors and Seniors participate in the Latin III Club. They remember that the club name, Cognoscamus, means "Let us learn.", an idea that has even more significance now that they are approaching graduation.

From this group, Jimmy Wright ran as a candidate for N.C. J.C.L. president at Chapel Hill in March. Jimmy was Webb High's first candidate for state president. He has to his credit two state and two national conventions, Webb's club has in the past years sent seventy-six delegates to national meetings.

Glen Woodlief and Linda Sue Clark are crowned Emperor and Express at annual Latin Banquet. Gilbert Hensgen, Laura Leslie Powell, Bill Cheathom, Joy Forsythe, Glen Woodlief, and Linda Sue Clark.

Coach James Graham, in the midst of rebuilding his Webb Wildcats, has led his team in a vigorous and desirous campaign this season. The Wildcats have been led by co-captains Tony Oakes, the only returning letterman, and Ben Grimes, a transfer letterman with a deadly shooting eye from King's Mountain. Other team starters this season have been the rebellious rebounder, Charles Barker; outside shooter, Madison Riggan; and Greg Belcher, an excellent scorer and vigorous rebounder. Others on the team who saw action this season are seniors, Frank Dixon and Ben Thorpe, both of whom were colorful players; juniors, Robert Powell, Gilbert Hensgen, Gary Cash, Jimmy Wright, and Toney Gregory.

This year was an exceptionally long year for the Kittens. There were only 2 seniors on the team, along with 1 junior, 8 sophomores, and 3 freshmen. Because of this apparent youth and inexperience, the Kittens had an extremely poor season; however, there is a very good outlook for the coming years. Mrs. Oakes is confident that the experience gained this year by younger players will greatly benefit them later.

Co-captains this year were Ann Colenda and Linda Daniel. Linda Hobgood, Kitty Boswood, Marjorie Cole, and Margaret Person saw a great deal of action this season.

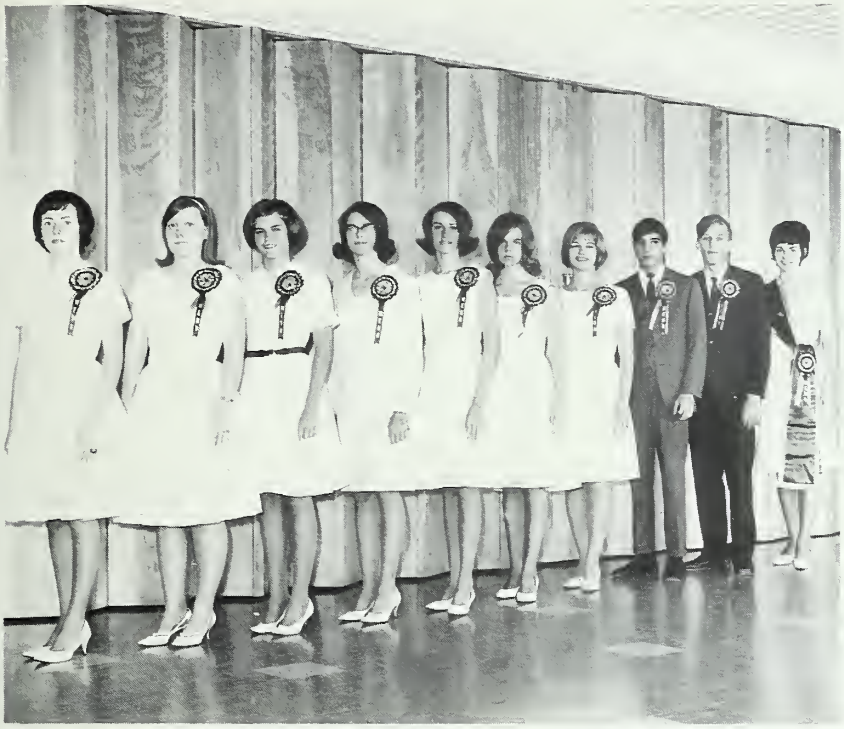
Mascot

For their mascot this year, Webb Seniors selected John Bryan Toylor. He is the son of Mrs. Morjorie Taylor and his sister, Loura, is o member of the senior class.

John, a blue-eyed blonde, is an extremely octive five-year-old. He loves to dig holes, to climb trees ond to play with toy cars and trucks. A member of Oxford Methodist Church, John also attends kindergarten. His plans for the future include becoming either a firemon or a policeman.

The Class of '66 is proud to hove this cute youngster as their mascot. All seniors wish for John a truly happy and successful future.



Marilyn Stovall, Linda Grissam, Caroline Mitchell, Marsha Aitken, Douglas Thomas, Flora Taylor, Jay Forsythe, William Ellington, Meyer Dworsky, and Gwen Hightower, Chief Marshal.

Marshals

The highlight of the school year for the intellectual juniors is the announcement of marshals. The eleven juniors having the highest scholastic averages for their first five semesters in high school gain the honor of being a marshal. In return for this distinction, it is the marshals' duty to usher and maintain order at any school assembly and at all commencement exercises. This year, in addition to their regular duties, the marshals served as hosts for college night.

Class Night Speakers

To relive in their imaginations the good and bad times of the past four years and to predict and look forward to the future, each senior class participates in class night as part of commencement exercises. The class of '66 of J.F. Webb High School chose Jay Perkinson, President; Joy Forsythe for the introduction of speakers; Bobby Barnes, testator; Charles Barker, prophet; Lily Comer, poet; and Ben Grimes for the presentation of the Senior Class gift.

SEATED: Joy Forsythe, Historian; Lily Comer, Class Poet. STANDING: Jay Perkinson, President; Bobby Barnes, Last Will and Testament; Charles Barker, Class Prophet; Ben Grimes, Treasurer.

National Honor Society

Meyer Dwarsky, President; William Ellington, Vice President; Marsha Aitken, Secretary; Caralina Mitchell, Treasurer.

Throughout history man has recognized and marked for special honor those who excel. At J.F. Webb High School, the National Honor Society honors those students who excel in scholarship, service, leadership, and character. In this way the club helps to promote these four basic ideals in the school. The highlight of National Honor Society work is the induction of new members each spring. Last spring, twenty-four new members were inducted.

The National Honor Society began its important work this year by amending its one-year-old constitution. Generally, the amendments established a new process for election of members and set annual dues. In the past Webb's Honor Society has primarily concerned itself with honoring students. This year, however, steps were taken for the Honor Society to promote and participate in worthwhile projects. The first of these required its members to participate in College Night, which was held this year at Webb.
